

General Rules

A.k.a. THE BIG THREE

These apply to all rooms on the server at all times. (Except for The Shadow Realm, with a few exceptions)

1. Don't be a dick

- We're all here to have a good time, supposedly.
- Don't intentionally go out of your way to impact someone's experience negatively
- Respect the staff. They're humans too.
- Don't be racist, don't use defamatory remarks etc.
(The n word is still allowed if used ironically, the hard r and any variations of it -such as negro- will get you instantly banned)
- Don't harass or target anyone
- Don't impersonate people, especially banned users

2. Don't spam

- Pretty self explanatory

3. Practice common sense

- Erotic Roleplaying is banned, don't do it.
- This is a strictly 13+ server. People below the age limit will be banned for how much time it takes them to get to 13.
- If you regularly come close to breaking the rules without actually breaking them, it will be treated as the rules being broken.
- Interrupting cases falls under this rule, don't do it
- Don't knowingly spoil shows/movies/games etc. for other users

- Don't use the mod call feature more than once for the same offender unless said person persists after a moderator has left.
- Don't lock rooms without justification

Don't cause unnecessary drama

This is an english speaking server. If you wish to converse in another language, do so privately in a separate room (other than lobby).

Use common sense, stuff not listed above may still be punished.

Room Specific Rules

These apply to the specific room in question.

If you speak in global, you must respect the General Rules, regardless of what room you are in.

Lobby 1/2 & The Chill Zone :

Used for general chatting with other players:

No heavy roleplaying, (Erotic, casing, gaming, etc)

Character Testing Grounds:

Used for testing characters' emotes or custom iniswaps and the like.

No heavy roleplaying, (Erotic, casing, gaming, etc.) No disrupting character testing, and keep any kind of conversation low, especially if you are not testing.

Private Rooms/Music Rooms:

"Chattings rooms that you can lock. Nothing more than that"

No heavy roleplaying, (Erotic, casing, gaming, etc, no interjecting in a conversation you're not welcomed in joining)

Courtrooms:

Used for casing roleplays:

No roleplaying besides casing, no entering a case without permission, no attempting to start a case while someone else is attempting to do the same, no interrupting a case in progress. Preferably don't use it as a chat room.

Game Rooms:

Used for games & gaming roleplays:

No erotic roleplaying, no entering a game or roleplay without permission, no attempting to start a game or roleplay while someone else is actively doing the same, no interrupting a game or roleplay in progress. Chatting is fine, but don't primarily use it as a casual chat room, as there are many other rooms that serve this purpose.

Normal Roleplaying Rooms:

Primarily used for general roleplaying:

No erotic roleplaying, no entering a roleplay without permission, no attempting to start a roleplay while someone else is actively doing the same, no interrupting a roleplay in progress. Chatting is fine, but don't primarily use it as a casual chat room, as there are many other rooms that serve this purpose.

The Shadow Realm:

"You and I will finish this contest in the Shadow Realm, Yugi!"

Anything is permitted except the following:

- Don't ERP
- Don't mod call (Unless it's to report ERP)
- Don't post anything in global chat that would break the rules
 - Don't ban evade
 - You may still practice common sense

The Mod Treehouse:

"Please don't lock our room if you're not a mod"

- Normal server rules apply here
- Room mostly intended for Moderator use, but normal users can join
 - Keep it chill and civil in there, please
 - You can probably find Brando in there, vibing

A maximum of 3 strikes will be handed out for breaking the rules before bans occur. Multiple strikes may be handed at once. The duration of said ban depends on how many previous bans someone's been given:

First ban -> 1 - 5 days

Second ban -> one week

Third ban -> several weeks/one month

Fourth ban -> perma + possibility of an appeal

Fifth ban (congratulations!) -> perma without appeal

NOTE: These are just references, you may be banned after a single offense.

ONLY call mods if someone is breaking the rules, disturbing a roleplay without stopping after being asked to, or there's an issue that affects everyone.

For assistance with personal issues related to the server that don't affect others or their gameplay experiences, please join our Discord server found in the in-game server MOTD, and ask there.

Swearing is fine, so please don't call mod for this.

Signed,
Brando
